This iconic and acclaimed motorhome has just raised the bar, with the new generation setting new benchmarks for style, technology, comfort and practicality. Fresh new design, inside and out, our best-selling motorhome just got even better. Adria. Inspiration for your adventures.

THE DEVELOPMENT STORY.

NEW MATRIX, THE ONLY MOTORHOME YOU'LL EVER NEED.

The Adria development team decided to design the new generation Matrix from the ground-up, covering every aspect of its appearance, functionality and performance. It's the ultimate in stylish versatility, the only motorhome you'll ever need.

INSPIRED DESIGN

Our designers managed to achieve a sleek, more aerodynamic new profile, with a new front cap design with a large integrated panoramic window. To the rear, there's a new incline with perfectly integrated air deflector, new bumper and Hella LED lights. Available in Silver body (Supreme) and White body (Plus models) using Adria's unique 'Complex' body construction, with sporty new exterior graphics.

"This new generation motorhome raises the standards for the crossover category. We reviewed every aspect of the existing Matrix, with a clear view of the ownership experience we wanted to deliver. We found a new design language externally and internally, made big steps in both comfort and practicality and also brought new digital solutions to reality."
